

NORDYNE

COMPLETE COMFORT. GENUINE VALUE.

Corporate overview

Established: Began in 1919 as International Oil Heating Company, a manufacturer of oil burners for residential heating products. Entered the manufactured housing market 1935 with the first heater for mobile homes. In 1968, the company became Intertherm Inc. Purchased by Nortek in 1985, company became NORDYNE in 1987, and entered the residential heating and cooling market in 1988.

Headquarters: 8000 Phoenix Parkway, O'Fallon, Missouri 63368

Facilities: International Headquarters, Miami, Fla.
Boonville Manufacturing and Distribution Facility, Boonville, Mo.
Dyersburg Manufacturing Facility, Dyersburg, Tenn.
Poplar Bluff Manufacturing and Distribution Facility, Poplar Bluff, Mo.
Tipton Manufacturing Facility, Tipton, Mo.
Miller de México, Monterrey, Nuevo León, México
Partner's Choice Service Parts, St. Louis, Mo.

Leadership: David LaGrand, president and chief executive officer

Business: Serves the HVAC industry by providing innovative, quality indoor comfort systems for the add-on, replacement, new construction/builder and commercial markets worldwide.

Employs Demand Flow Technology (DFT) to build high-quality products for our customers, and are the only HVAC manufacturer certified in this technique.

Triple-checks every product at each step of manufacturing process, followed by 100% computer-automated testing to remove human error.

Offers some of the best consumer product warranties available in the heating and cooling industry. All warranties are manufacturer-backed and not third-party administered.

- Brands:
- Maytag
 - Broan
 - Frigidaire
 - NuTone
 - Tappan
 - Westinghouse
 - Gibson
 - Kelvinator
 - Philco
 - Intertherm
 - Miller
 - Mammoth

Awards: Recognized by Copeland Compressors as having the fewest failures in 1991, 1994, 2000 and 2003.

Company's iQ Drive air conditioner is the 2008 AHR Expo Innovation award for the Cooling Performance category, and the Overall Winner of the AHR Expo Innovation Award, surpassing all categorical winners. This award competition is jointly sponsored by International Exposition Company, ASHRAE and ARI.

Company's iQ Drive received a 2009 Consumers Digest Best Buy award for central air conditioners.

Company's iQ Drive received the 2007 Dealer Design Award, selected by an independent panel of professional HVACR contractors.

Web site: www.nordyne.com

###